CELEBRATING DEMOCRACY WEEK

15-21 AUGUST 2007

CELEBRATING DEMOCRACY WEEK GRANTS

Grants of up to $1,000 are available for your school to take part in Celebrating Democracy Week 15-21 August 2007.

What are the characteristics that make good citizens? What are our rights and responsibilities as a citizen?

Take this opportunity to encourage your students to reflect on Australia's democracy and the values that shape it.

EVERY VOICE COUNTS! STUDENT FORUM

Year 10 and 11 students can apply for the Every Voice Counts! Student Forum which will be conducted in Canberra between 15 and 17 August 2007.

The topic this year is 'Being a responsible citizen – what it means to me.' Successful students will take part in a two and a half day, behind-the-scenes look at how our democracy operates and learn how to be active, responsible citizens. All travel, accommodation and meals are provided. Every Voice Counts! winners will be presented with a framed certificate.

Visit the website www.civicsandcitizenship.edu.au for more information.

Applications close on Wednesday 25 July 2007. Fax your applications to Curriculum Corporation on 1300 780 545 or contact the Corporation by telephone on (03) 9207 9600.
