Universal Declaration of Human Rights: Summary

Some key aspects covered by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights are:

- No racial persecution (Article 2)
- No religious discrimination (Article 2)
- Freedom from fear of physical harm (Articles 4, 5)
- Access to a fair legal system (Articles 7, 8, 9, 10, 11)
- The right to own property and have it protected (Articles 12, 17)
- The right to belong to a nation and change nationality (Article 15)
- The right to marriage with consent (Article 16)
- The right to freedom of thought and expression (Articles 18, 19)
- The right to join organisations and meet in groups (Article 20)
- The right to equal access to running the country (Article 21)
- The right to food, clothing and shelter (Article 25)
- The right to education (Article 26)