Human rights and disabilities
Student resources: Worksheet 1

Data Retrieval Chart

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Public place involved</th>
<th>Rate access today *</th>
<th>Other access issues</th>
<th>Possible improvements</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- How well have laws and human rights (and rights of disabled people) been considered? Has the location been extremely well set up for access? Has some effort been made? Have various types of disabilities been taken into account?

Student resources
Websites
http://www.vpwceducation.com/index.htm
http://www.globaleducation.edna.edu.au
http://www.guidedogs.com.au

Student resources
Print
Archer Jules, You can't do that to me: Famous fights for human rights, Macmillan, New York, c1980.