

Defining global citizenship

Definition:

Global citizenship involves knowing that we are all citizens of the one globe and behaving in a way which demonstrates a respect for that globe and all people on it.

A global citizen is someone who demonstrates the following values and attitudes:

1. Empathy
2. A commitment to social justice and equity
3. A respect for diversity
4. A concern for the environment and a commitment to sustainable development
5. A belief that people can make a difference